CONCERNED school-children are calling for the law to be changed to protect them when cycling.

Year five pupils from St Mary's Primary School in Bridport have orchestrated a campaign to improve road safety in and around their school, culminating in a barrage of letters to MP for West Dorset, Oliver Letwin.

The safety-conscious children are concerned that a Private Members Bill to make wearing protective headgear compulsory for children has been dropped, even though just one in five under 14-year-olds nationwide wears a helmet while cycling.

St Mary's pupil Jamie Waplington was appalled by figures which appear to show cyclists are disproportionately at risk from accidents involving cars and non-drivers.

He wrote: "The number of injuries and fatalities are ridiculous... I find these statistics horrifying and I think they should be changed."

In a separate letter, classmate Sophie Wilson called on Mr Letwin to take action.

She wrote: "The bill is not impressive because it didn't go through parliament... if possible I would like you to bring this up in parliament."

In July last year, Annette Brooke, MP for Mid Dorset and North Poole, presented the Cycles (Protective Headgear for Children) Bill which would require children found cycling without a helmet to provide proof that they had subsequently bought one – or face a fine.

The St Mary's pupils were disappointed that the bill had fallen off the political agenda with some blaming a perceived lack of motivation among the Westminster bigwigs.

Year five's Kaitlin said of the bill: "They dropped it because they couldn't be bothered to carry on with it."

The pupils are also call-

CHEF Tony Morraffa has worked in catering for more than three decades and has run the Country Kitchen in Weymouth for the past two years. But it was his conversion of Bridport's Café Royal into a 1950s themed diner that caught the public's imagination.

He has described refurbishing the building as "like opening a can of worms" but successfully reopened the iconic local landmark a month ago. Originally from Leicester, the 47-year-old has lived in Weymouth for 20 years and makes the hour-long round trip to Bridport daily to run his new venture.

■ WHEN did you start in the restaurant business?

I've been working in kitchens since I was 15-years-old. I started as a kitchen porter, which in those days was just a pot washer, and worked my way up. I trained as a chef when I was 18-years-old and since then I've cooked in pubs, hotels, restaurants, all kinds of places.

■ WHAT made you take on the Café Royal?

It's always been a dream of mine to run a 50s style cafe. Then one day someone was selling some equipment at the Café Royal and I came down to have a look at it. After that I've always quite fancied having the place. The news of somebody leaving it gave me the idea of taking it on and doing something with it.

■ WHAT'S your fascination with the 1950s?

I have always had an interest in the period. The music, the style, it was just a way of life I suppose. It was something I didn't experience first hand - I was born in the sixties - but my parents were very much into the music and the style sort of rubbed off on me if you like. I was always hearing Buddy Holly, The Big Bopper, The Everly Brothers, music like that.

■ HOW did you go about designing the interior of the café?

I had a rough idea of what I was going to do with the place before I started. I had photographs of American diners, things I had seen online. The old HMV record player on the counter I got from the attic in my mum's house. The hubcaps you see on the wall, I'd already collected. I've been collecting them for years and I've got around 60 now. People come into the café to photograph them. My favourite is the Oldsmobile - it's from the 50s and is the oldest one I have. A lot are American. The Chevrolet ones are from a vehicle I actually drove.

■ RUNNING two restaurants takes a lot of work. What motivates you?

I've just got the ambition and drive to expand and do that kind of thing. I'd like to do more. Obviously I've got to see how the Café Royal goes, but I'm confident it's going to make money, so eventually when another premises comes up similar to this one, then who knows, I might look into it. It was a lot of work to refurbish this place but at the end of the day it's what you put into something that gives you your returns back. The more you put in, the more you get back.

■ EVER want a break?

Yeah, I need one. I work seven days a week. I haven't had a holiday for four years. My last project, the Country Kitchen in Weymouth, took two years to get where it is today and now I've taken this on. I'm just a bit of a workaholic I suppose and I'm doing quite well to stay on my feet sometimes. I don't really have any hobbies apart from cooking and music.

■ HOW important is music to you?

It's very important. I'd like to turn the Café Royal into a bit of a music venue if I could. If there are people into music like rhythm & blues, rock n' roll or any music from that era, I'd like to get them here. I've had a band play here already and it's been really good. Also I've played guitar since I was 14, on and off. I've got an electric guitar, a nice old Fender Strat. I've thought about bringing it down and hanging it up somewhere but it's quite expensive and I don't really want it getting clattered.

■ WHAT do you like about living in the Dorset?

It's the beautiful countryside. My mum's lived in Portland for 25, 30 years, and I've been in Weymouth 20, so it's my home now. I went back to Leicester not so long back and when I got off at the main bus station in the centre of town, it just didn't seem like home at all any more. It was just a different place really.

Fundraising events off to a great start

■ THE fundraising dinner at Hive Beach Cafe

THE daughters of a woman who died from breast cancer have started their epic fundraising challenge.

Inspired by their mum's fight with the disease, Jen George and her sisters are planning a series of challenges in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support and Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

The first fundraiser began with a sell-out fundraising dinner at the Hive Beach Café, Burton Bradstock where she works.

All 85 tickets for the evening went in under a week and cost £30 per head. Along with a raffle Ms George was able to make a donation of more than £3,700 to the chosen charities.

The fundraiser included a six-course gala dinner and wine tasting menu.

Ms George said she had organised the night because she really wanted to do something positive in memory of her mum.

In her speech during the dinner she said: "On September 9th 2011 mum died from secondary tumours following an initial diagnosis of breast cancer eight years ago. Until it happens, you never think that it will affect your family."

She added: "It was while visiting the hospital me and my sisters decided that if we combined forces we could do something to honour mum and help charities that offer support or do research into an illness that touches so many."

Now the sisters are finalising plans to swim the English Channel, run the Edinburgh Marathon and complete the Three Peaks Challenge – climbing Ben Nevis, Snowdon and Scafell all within 24 hours.

The Hive has also nominated Macmillan as their preferred charity this year after Bill Attrill, Steve's father, died in December 2011.

Hive staff gave their time free of charge as did all the other suppliers and contributors.

Ms George said: "I've been touched by all the warmth and enthusiasm for the event and would like to thank those who helped make the evening such a success and so worthwhile."

Calls for mayor to quit after church boycott

CALLS for the mayor to step down if he does not fulfil his civic duties have been made by a fellow Bridport councillor.

Councillor Karl Wallace is calling for the ceremonial head of the town council to leave the post after refusing to attend the church service for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

But the mayor Councillor David Rickard is standing firm on his decision not to attend the service in St Mary's Church. The call for him to quit came on the day he was sworn in for a second year as mayor.

Councillor Wallace boycotted the mayor making ceremony in the Town Hall on Thursday of last week.

Council in the clear over new offices

CLAIMS the district council's decision to forge ahead with its controversial new offices were wrongly handled have been knocked back.

A review by an independent auditor found West Dorset District Council (WDDC) has followed a 'reasonable process' in its decision to relocate to new offices to Charles Street in Dorchester.

The review was conducted by KPMG after five electors called for a public interest report after objecting to the district council's accounts on March 31st 2011. The objectors called for a 'value for money' assessment of the council's decision to replace its current offices at Stratton House with new offices at Charles Street.

Concerns centred around the Executive Committee being seen to have pre-determined the Charles Street site and a loan of £250,000 being given to the developer of the Charles Street site, to support the wider retail development, at the time of the tender. Both concerns were dismissed by the KPMG report.

WDDC Leader, Robert Gould welcomed the findings of the review.

He said: "I am delighted that KPMG found that there were no grounds for issuing a public interest report. The district council did not call for this investigation but fully supported KPMG's decision to undertake the review and we have found it to be a useful process."

"We accept the recommendations that have been made and have already started to act on some of them. For instance, we have taken steps to improve the ability of local residents to engage with the council by introducing public questions at full council meetings."

He added: "Looking to the future, we are committed to progressing the Charles Street development and the opening of the new district council offices towards the end of this year."

The £9.7million move has been shrouded in controversy since the plan was first mooted in 2009.

The move is set save the council between £224,000 a year, according to its web site.

by Paul Crompton
paul@pemedi.co.uk

Councillor Rickard made headlines in his first term after scrapping prayers before council meetings.

Councillor Rickard said: "I don't think it warrants further comment having just been unanimously voted back for a second term."

"My accuser certainly doesn't speak for the town as I know it - everyone I meet is very supportive."

His deputy, councillor Geoff Ackerman will take his place at the service on June 3rd in St Mary's church.

Councillor Wallace said he had had lots of people coming up to him to comment on the Mayor's decision not to attend the church service.

He said: "He [Councillor Rickard] has said 'I don't do God' so I've spoken to him and said 'I don't do Rickard'. When you are the mayor you take on the town's values and traditions and that includes going to church."

"If he doesn't want to go to church he shouldn't do what he's doing now. If he wants to be mayor you have to go to church as a representative of all the people in Bridport's community."

"I don't care if he is a royalist or not, but when he puts on the robes his personal beliefs should go out of the window."

He added: "If he doesn't want to do it he should step down and let Geoff Ackerman do it because he's Mr Bridport."

Have your say on the future of West Dorset

LOCAL people will be asked to have their say about a plan to shape the future of West Dorset at special drop-in sessions in June and July.

The sessions will be held so people can find out more about the draft Local Plan. It sets out how both the area will be developed until 2031 and has been produced jointly by West Dorset District Council and Weymouth and Portland Borough Council.

However, each council will remain responsible for planning decisions in its area.

The draft Local Plan sets out a long term planning strategy to meet future housing, employment and leisure needs.

It covers important issues like where housing could be built, how the economy can be boosted and what infrastructure like schools and play areas may be needed. It also looks at how climate change can be tackled, the environment protected and how future developments can be made more sustainable.

The drop-in sessions will be held so local residents, people who work or do business in either area or anyone else interested can come along and find out more.

Robert Gould, Leader of West Dorset District Council, said: "I hope people will come along and find out about the Local Plan. It is hugely important because it sets out how our area will be developed for the next 20 years. We value your views. You know best how your neighbourhood should be developed and what services it needs."

The drop-in sessions, which will be held between 1pm and 7pm, include:
● Beaminstor - Town Hall on June 19th;
● Bridport - Mountfield on June 20th;
● Lyme Regis - Woodmead Hall on June 21st.

Comments about the draft Local Plan must be received by July 27th 2012. Comments will then be considered by councillors. The draft Local Plan, any comments and changes will then be submitted to Government.

A Planning Inspector will then examine it in public in 2013 before it can be approved.

The draft Local Plan will be available from June 1st, view it online at www.dorsetforyou.com/newlocalplan/west/weymouth

You can tell the council what you think by completing the online comments form (available after June 1st) at: www.dorsetforyou.com/newlocalplan/west/weymouth

If you are unable to use the online form email comments to s.policy@westdorset-weymouth.gov.uk or write to: Local Plan Consultation, West Dorset District Council, Stratton House, 58/60 High West Street, Dorchester, DT1 1UZ

For more information about the draft Local Plan call 01305 252433 or 01305 838214.

Copies of the draft Local Plan and comments forms will also be available at the offices above from 8:30am to 5pm Monday to Thursday or 8:30am to 4:30pm on Fridays, and also at libraries from June 1st to July 27th.

Museum celebrates 80th birthday

BRIDPORT Museum will celebrate its 80th birthday next week.

Staff and volunteers will be celebrating the milestone at the South Street organisation on Monday, May 28th.

The Mayor, Councillor David Rickard, will cut a birthday cake at 11am on the day to mark the occasion.

Residents are invited to visit around that time for a slice of cake to celebrate with the museum's staff and volunteers.

Emily Hicks, the museum's curator, said: "The Bridport News for June 3rd 1932 reported that Bridport's Museum and Art Gallery was opened at the 'Old Castle' on Saturday May 28th 1932 by the Mayoress, Mrs F W Knight.

"The museum has gone from strength to strength in that time. In particular since the introduction of free entry a few years ago, which saw visitor numbers rise to around 17,000 each year since."

The 16th century facade is all that remains of the original building, which was destroyed by fire in 1875.

Early ownership of the building is not known but over the years it has been home to the Castle Inn, a Penny Savings Bank, Working Men's Institute, Lodge of Oddfellowship and a Conservative Club.

The building was purchased in 1932 by Captain A.P. Codd of

by Paul Crompton

paul@pemedial.co.uk

Bath, the son of a Beaminster clergyman.

Ms Hicks said: "He had no personal connections with the town but wanted a building in which to display his paintings. He donated it to the town for use as a museum and art gallery together with many of his own paintings and those of a friend."

Cyril Benoni Holman Hunt, son of the pre-Raphaelite artist William Holman Hunt, loaned some of his father's paintings to be displayed in the new gallery.

The museum was administered by Bridport Borough Council from 1932 to 1974 after which it was transferred to the district council.

In November 2002 West Dorset District Council handed over the building, collections and staff to the newly formed Bridport Museum Trust, an independent charitable trust set up to manage the organisation.

The museum tells the story of the town's history from its origins to the present day with permanent and temporary exhibitions from the collections which include photographs, rope and net, costumes, lace, dolls, numismatics and fine art.

'Friends of Bridport Museum' assist the staff in promoting the museum and new members are always welcome.

Bridport Museum is free to enter and is open April to October, Monday to Saturday, from 10am-5pm. For more information visit www.bridportmuseum.co.uk

New recycling banks opened

NEW recycling banks for food and drinks cartons have been set up in Bridport.

Special collection banks have been set up for empty cartons to be recycled in West Street and West Bay car parks.

The scheme means cartons that contained items such as fruit juice, soup, chopped tomatoes and milk can now be recycled properly.

The bins will be emptied and the cartons taken to paper mills to be recycled into cardboard packaging.

The scheme to encourage residents across the area to recycle even more has been made possible through West Dorset District Council teaming up with Alliance For Beverage Cartons & the Environment (ACE).

Councillor Robert Gould, leader of West Dorset District Council, said he hoped residents would support the latest recycling initiative.

He said: "This new scheme will be an excellent addition to waste services in West Dorset and one which will increase recycling across the district.

"Schemes such as these are well supported by residents and I hope that with their help we can, as a region, recycle even more."

Similar carton recycling schemes across the country by ACE UK, means that 89 per cent of households can now recycle cartons – either through kerbside collection or bring banks.

Fay Dashper, recycling operations manager at ACE UK, said it was fantastic news that the council was taking a lead by adding cartons to the list of materials it collects for recycling.

He said: "The high-quality wood fibres found in beverage cartons are flexible and strong, and can be recycled up to six times, making them a valuable raw material for new paper products.

"We very much hope that the initiative is successful. We are committed to increasing carton recycling in the UK and this project takes us a step closer to achieving that."

Manufacturers produce around 57,000 tonnes of paper-based cartons to package milk, fruit juice and an increasingly wide range of food products, including soup, chopped tomatoes and pulses for the UK market this year. This equates to around 2.3kg of cartons per household which could be recycled instead of being thrown in the rubbish bin.

Doctor's memorial bench unveiled in town centre

A MEMORIAL bench has been unveiled in Bridport town centre for a well-known doctor.

The bench in Bucky Doo Square is in memory of Dr George Crawshaw, who served the town for more than 50 years as a GP.

The bench was unveiled by the doctor's widow Susan – a childhood friend he proposed to while stationed in Palestine and she in Cairo after World War II.

The D-Day veteran's son Steve and daughter Alice also attended the unveiling on Saturday, May 19th.

The Crawshaw family hope the bench will allow former patients to remember the doctor while having a permanent reminder of him in the town he loved.

Steve said "My father was a GP in the area for

by Paul Crompton

paul@pemedial.co.uk

decades. He lived there after arriving in the 1950s and worked there for many years as a GP and in retirement so there is a bond and a with Bridport and Dorset.

"Even when my parents moved to London a couple of years ago their lives were still bound up in Bridport and so I thought it would be nice to give something back to Bridport and for the many people in the town and surrounding area who would've known him.

"Bridport meant so much to him and so it is nice to have a little piece of memory going in both directions.

"For us it's to be able to remember him and his connection with Dorset and the people there, and for them if they see a plaque they can remember Dr Crawshaw.

"So it's a sense of ongoing presence in a place that mattered so much to him."

He added: "I think it was my mother's idea to give a sense of having something and somehow of remembering him in Bridport."

"This obviously is a way and we were lucky there was a space in Bucky Doo Square, which is in the heart of the community and close to Arts Centre which he loved."

A town council spokesman said: "Occasional requests are made to the town council for memorial benches on many areas administered by the town council including Bucky Doo Square."

"When requests are received, the Town Surveyor looks to see whether it is possible to position a seat in a particular place."

OBITUARY - Dr George Crawshaw (1917-2010)

DR GEORGE Crawshaw practised as a family doctor and then spent his retirement in Bridport for more than half a century.

He died peacefully in London on January 16th, aged 92.

Born in Sheffield, he later graduated with a first class degree in natural sciences from Emmanuel College, Cambridge just months before the outbreak of World War II 1939.

He qualified as a doctor in 1942.

As a member of the Royal Army Medical Corps, he took part in the D-Day landings in 1944 and was present at the relief of the Belsen concentration camp the following year - an experience that haunted him throughout his life.

He was awarded a "mention in despatches" for his work in Germany.

After VE Day he was stationed in Palestine, where he met Susan Goodden, a childhood friend who was also stationed in the region.

The pair's friendship blossomed and they regularly spoke on an army telephone line between Palestine and Cairo.

At the end of the conversation, Susan said: "Well, I think that's all my chat for today. Have you anything else to say?"

"Yes," George replied. "Will you marry me?"

The couple married the following year.

After demobilisation, George trained as a paediatrician. His first post included responsibility for West Dorset, which he quickly came to love. He became a general practitioner in Bridport in 1951, and remained with the practice, first at Dorset House in East Street and then in North Allington, for the next three decades.

After retirement he continued to live in West Allington, where he became a familiar figure in the town on his trusty bicycle which he rode till the age of 90.

He was a keen gardener, growing everything from peaches and figs to asparagus and artichokes. He loved music, and regularly played viola in the Bridport Orchestra and in a string quartet.

He moved to London in 2008 with Susan, two years after their diamond wedding.

He is survived by Susan, and by four children, eight grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren

'BOYCIE' SIGNS ON IN BRIDPORT

FANS of classic sitcom 'Only Fools and Horses' lined up to have their book signed by one of the show's most memorable characters.

Actor John Challis was in Waterstones bookshop in Bridport signing copies of his autobiography Being Boycie.

More than 60 fans lined up in the West Street store to meet the instantly recognisable actor, famous for his "All right, Marlene" catchphrase in the hit BBC1 show.

Still sporting the moustache, Mr Challis was serenaded by a group of teenagers who sang the entire theme tune of the show.

Jan Jaggard, manager of Waterstones Bridport, said it had been one of the most memorable book

by Paul Crompton
paul@pemedial.co.uk

signings the store had held.

She said: "I can honestly say, hand on heart, he was the nicest person we've ever had an event with. He was really, really lovely. So genuine, he had a kind word for everyone that came in, nothing was too much trouble for him."

"We even had a crowd of teenage boys come who yelled 'Boycie' and then sang the theme tune to him, it was hilarious. He loved it."

She added: "I think it's great for the town to have people like him come on a weekend and meet with people for free. It's just really good for the town, a real boost."

The store organises around 20 similar events each year in the town.

Fan Sean Coombs took his family with him to the book signing.

He said: "We decided to come because we always watch 'Only Fools and Horses' and 'The Green Green Grass' [the Only Fools spin-off show]. We've always been big fans of him."

Famous for his role in the classic comedy, Mr Challis has also performed with the Royal Shakespeare Company, toured the world performing in Tom Stoppard plays, acted on the West End stage and also in Coronation Street.

John Challis's autobiography covers his life from childhood to Boycie becoming an established character in 'Only Fools and Horses'.

The store is due to host a book signing by England fast bowler Phillip DeFreitas in July.

Trading estate group holds further meeting

ENTERPRISE St Michaels (ESM) is to hold a second public meeting at Bridport Town Hall on Tuesday, May 29th at 6pm.

It will be followed at 8pm by a members' meeting. Currently with over 100 members, ESM is an initiative aiming to offer an alternative to development plans put forward by the current owners of the site, Hayward & Co.

Transport group to discuss Olympic effect

WEST Dorset Western Area Transport Action Group is inviting members of the public to discuss the effects of the forthcoming Olympic Games on public transport.

The proposed re-tendering of the X53 bus is also on the agenda, and any questions about local bus and rail services welcomed.

The meeting is scheduled to take place on Thursday, May 24th at 6.30pm.

Man bailed

A SUSPECTED drink driver is on bail after a road traffic collision in Bridport.

During the evening of Monday, May 7th a 42-year-old local man was arrested for drink driving after he had been involved in a crash.

He is currently on police bail until June 13th.

Police issue advice to motorists

A WARNING has been issued to motorists visiting beauty spots in the area. Police are urging motorists to hide valuables from opportunist thieves if they leave their vehicle unattended.

The advice comes at time when traditionally thieves start to take advantage of unsuspecting motorists as they stop at West Dorset's many beauty areas.

PC Sarah Corrin of Bridport Safer Neighbourhood Team said that with the warmer weather many residents would be taking advantage of the many beauty spots in and around the Bridport area.

She said: "Unfortunately the often secluded locations and large numbers of visitors to the car parks in these areas make them a popular target for thieves who can break into a car and remove the valuables in seconds."

"Most thieves are opportunistic – leaving valuables on display is an invitation to criminals, therefore it's very important that nothing is left on show in vehicles."

Victims or those with information of thefts from vehicles should call police direct on 101, or speak to Crime Stoppers on 0800 555 111 – all calls will be treated in confidence.

Vernons Court gives Karen a birthday surprise

A SUPPORT officer was given a surprise party to celebrate her 60th birthday.

Residents of Magna Housing's supported housing scheme at Vernons Court in Bridport organised the special surprise for their support officer Karen Lovelace.

Beryl Riglar, the party ring-leader, and her fellow residents got together to make a variety of cakes and savouries for the surprise party on May 13th.

Ewa Shephard, Magna's communication manager, said: "Karen, a visiting support officer of 31 years, was kept completely in the dark by the wonderfully duplicitous Magna residents and, although embarrassed to be the surprise centre of attention, gave a lovely thank you speech and passed around yummy slices of birthday cake."

The party was also attended by Graham Colls, Magna's chief executive, who gave Karen a speech that included juicy titbits of information from Karen's original job application form.

Mr Colls said: "Karen stated in her application that she was looking for job security.

"Well, we think she found it as 31 years with the council and then Magna testifies."

Powerstock fundraiser to help rebuild school

A TWO-day fundraising spectacle will be held in Powerstock this weekend.

The Flower Festival and Art Exhibition will raise money for local charity Wawa and the Powerstock School Re-building Fund.

The primary school's main hall was ravaged by fire last October after a suspected electrical fault.

Now children from a Peruvian school, supported by Wawa, have sent messages of support to the Powerstock pupils in the lead up to the festival.

The messages of support and drawings of flowers to be displayed alongside those of the Powerstock pupils during the event.

When the original Victorian Powerstock School building burnt down last year, news spread worldwide via the internet.

Messages of sympathy and support were received from home and overseas, including from the school in Peru.

On both days of the festival there will be music by local musicians and singers. Fair trade refreshments, plants and paintings by local artist Hazel Grimsey will be on sale.

There will be eight other charities displaying flowers and raising funds.

These are: Parkinson's UK, The Red Cross, Uparo, Arthritis UK, Samaritans, Powerstock Church, Breast Cancer and Great Ormond Street Hospital.

This free community event is being staged in Powerstock Church this weekend (May 26th and 27th) from 10:30am to 4:30pm.

Allington Hill playtrail to open this summer

THE first phase of a play trail at a Bridport beauty spot is set to open this summer.

Play equipment is going to be installed on Allington Hill during the initial stages of a £10,000 project aimed at inspiring youngsters to get outdoors.

Grants totalling £2,200 from parish, town and district councils and donations from Bridport businesses have helped organisers achieve their first goal.

The Allington Hillbillies led project aims to install six items of equipment, mainly for the younger children who are too young to be climbing trees.

The Hillbillies volunteer group, which looks after Allington Hill, has been working on the project with the help of the Woodland Trust, which oversees the site.

The second phase of the project is due to begin next year.

The group's co-ordinator Cathy Harvey said this could provide the stepping stone for people who might not otherwise visit to get out and explore the hill.

She said: "We asked the children who live in the area what they would like, and it turned out not every child had climbed a tree, so the idea was born out of that."

"A rope swing was installed last summer and the idea of the play trail was discussed with the Woodland Trust. One of their main aims is to inspire people to enjoy woodland so any family friendly idea such as this, that gets people out into the fresh air, gets their support.

"We hope the equipment will prove to be huge fun for children and adults alike." She added: "Without the help of Allington Parish Council, who with foresight saw the value that the Allington Volunteer project would bring to the community, we would have never got this project off the ground."

The equipment will have a natural look to help it blend in with the woodland environment.

Huck's of Bridport are going to be the main suppliers of the play trail.

Tony Lucas, Play & Design Manager for

Huck Play UK Ltd, said they were delighted to be part of the Allington Hill development project.

He said: "We always enjoy getting involved in helping the local community, especially on a project that will help future generations to come."

"Hopefully by locating both the new and donated equipment around various parts of the hill, it will help children, teenagers and even adults to discover just how beautiful Allington Hill really is."

Bridport Community Fund has given £1,200; Allington Parish Council has given support and a total of £750; Sicor on Gore Cross Business Park donated 50 meters of rope, scrambling nets and other rope.

Music service is 'centre of excellence'

DORSET'S music service has been chosen as a centre of excellence for music education.

Young musicians are set to benefit from more than £1million cash injected in the next three years.

The service, which is part of Dorset County Council, is now part of a nationwide network of 122 Music Education Hubs.

Dorset music service was successful in its bid to become the lead organisation for the Dorset Music Education Hub.

Each hub provides instrumental lessons, bands, choirs, orchestras, and other music-making opportunities in and out of school for children aged between five and 18-years-old.

Hubs will be the focus of local partnerships, which aim to give all children a chance to be young musicians and are part of wider government reforms to music education. There will be significant changes in music education both in and out of school.

The aim of the hub is to make sure every young person has the opportunity to learn a musical instrument and sing, and play with other children as part of an ensemble or choir.

It is committed to providing all kinds of musical opportunities at the highest practicable level, to as many young people in the county as possible.

It will be held at the Council Chamber at Dorset County Council, Colliton Park, Dorchester, DT1 1XJ.

New jobs on the way as local business wins National Trust contract JOBS will be created after a leading Bridport business landed a contract with the National Trust.

One of the town's leading building services firms, A.P. Chant, won the contract to complete 12 month's maintenance work on behalf of the National Trust.

A.P. Chant managing director, Ashley Chant, said they were delighted to win the contract.

He said: "This new project will help us create more jobs locally by building our team further and taking on new staff."

"Being involved with an organisation as large as the National Trust is an honour. We are delighted to have been selected, following a comprehensive tender process, and will ensure that this project, like all others, will receive the highest level of our attention and care."

The contract, which was won by tender process, comes to completion at the end of March 2013.

The team from A.P. Chant will be looking after all heating and plumbing maintenance across in excess of 200 properties at Kingston Lacy, Purbeck and Brownsea Island.

Alix Gilmer, building surveyor for the National Trust, said: "We are very pleased to appoint A.P. Chant and are looking forward to working with them over the next year."

April has been a significantly important month for the West Dorset firm.

Aside from landing this major contract with the National Trust, they recently hosted the grand opening of their long-awaited renewable energy centre - The Core - which was officially opened by the Rt Hon Oliver Letwin MP.

50 years in the same home

DAVID and Stella Roper in their Burton Bradstock home

A BROTHER and sister have been living in the same Burton Bradstock house for more than 50 years.

David and Stella Roper are still happy in their home in Lower Townsend that they have loved and looked after since moving into it in 1951.

Ex RAF man Mr Roper, aged 79, still maintains the home himself.

Former bus driver Mr Roper looks after his blind sister who is 81-years-old.

The pensioners were the first tenants to live in the two-storey house, now owned and managed by Magna.

Originally the tenancy was in their father's name and the family moved from nearby Shipton Gorge when the property was completed by Bridport Rural District Council and Burton Bradstock Parish Council.

Mr Roper recalled paying his rent of one pound, two shillings and six pence every fortnight. He said: "We always looked forward to the person visiting us to collect our rent as seeing somebody on a regular basis was very nice and we always knew where we stood financially."

Mr Roper originally started his working life as an apprentice cabinet maker for Northover & Gilbert, before being called up for National Service and joining the RAF.

By the time this was finished he joined the National Bus Service, initially as a conductor and then as a driver.

After ten years, Mr Roper became a gardener in and around Burton Bradstock – a passion he continued to dabble in until recently when the entire side and rear gardens were laid out as a vegetable allotment. These have now been laid to lawn to make life easier for the Ropers.

With many friends in the village, the Ropers receive sociable visits every day and also have their shopping collected for them, a wonderful sign of a community working together.

Kerrie Brook, the Magna housing officer responsible for the Roper's property said: "It is so warming and reassuring to have such lovely tenants as the Ropers, and Magna wish the Ropers many more years of happy living in their beloved home."

St Andrew's pre-schoolers get hands-on with new ambulance

PUPILS from a Bridport pre-school have been given the chance to view the South Western emergency ambulance up close.

The NHS vehicle made a flying visit to pupils at St Andrews Pre-School so they could get hands on with the machine.

During the visit, the children were able to dress up, explore the ambulance and see life saving equipment which is carried on the vehicle.

The visit is part of the Early Years Foundation Scheme which aims to help children make connections between different parts of their life experiences.

The children thoroughly enjoyed the visit and the pre-school would like to thank the crew for their help, said a school spokesman.

West Bay exhibition focuses on how we use our hands and feet

TO some they are simply ugly appendages, but feet and hands will be celebrated this weekend during an exhibition in West Bay.

The '26 & 7 bones' exhibition explores how people along the Jurassic coast live and work with the landscape through their hands (27 bones) and feet (26 bones).

Everyone from a button maker to a surgeon and a coastguard have had their extremities photographed for the show at The Salt House.

The results will be revealed through an exhibition of sound and images, with live presentations on May 26th and 27th.

The exhibition is the culmination of Sue Palmer and Sally Watkins' investigations in the past six months as part of the Jurassic Coast Earth Festival.

Artist Ms Palmer said they had talked to people about their hands and feet because they were the primary points of contact with the coast.

She said: "We invited them to respond to a series of unusual questions about the use of their hands and/or feet in relation to the landscape or places they engage or work."

"We have also looked back in history to set our contributors' lives into the story of this part of the world, for example the sailing of the Dorset Pilgrims to America, and the ancient Dorset Button industry, kept alive today by the skills of such people as Betty Tett."

Ms Watkins said: "It's not just the activities that have interested us so much as the individual approach that each person brings to them."

"Conversations have often been poignant and full of fascinating details and, bringing them all together, they form a very interesting document of contemporary life along the Jurassic seaboard."

The exhibition includes 15 minute creative presentations on the hour, every hour by the artists and the project participants.

Opening times are Saturday from noon to 8pm and Sunday from noon to 7pm. Entry is free and visitors can come and go as they wish.

The event forms part of the Jurassic Coast Earth Festival 2012 (which started earlier this month and which continues along the coast until September) and Maritime Mix, the London 2012 Cultural Olympiad by the Sea.

No excuse campaign catches nearly 1,000 drivers ... in just one month

ALMOST 1,000 drivers were nabbed in March for breaking the law on Dorset's roads.

Up to 30 motorists a day were stopped during the month as part of Dorset Police's 'no excuse' campaign which targets drivers' bad habits.

Again the list of excuses by dopest drivers continued to astound police officers after they spotted 957 offences in just 31 days.

One driver in Bridport pleaded his innocence by claiming he knew the road had a 40 mile-per-hour limit - despite being clocked driving at 53 miles-per-hour.

The campaign is committed to making Dorset's roads safer and improving the habits of bad and inconsiderate drivers, said a police spokesman.

The 'no excuse' team has processed 4,067 offences this year - from January 1st to March 31st.

A total of 2,079 of these offences were detected by safety cameras and 1,988 were officer issued tickets.

Of the 1,988 officer issued tickets, a total of 250 were for distraction offences such as using a mobile phone, taking photos and using an iPod while driving.

Brian Austin, 'no excuse' project manager, said they were continually amazed at the thought process of some of the bad and inconsiderate drivers on Dorset's roads.

He said: "Although the 'no excuse' message is widely known in Dorset, nationally and even internationally, we still have drivers travelling on our roads that show time and again that they have no concern for other road users and pedestrians.

"With the covert use of safety camera vans, cars and bikes, technology like the Concept Lasers - which are now detecting mobile phone, speed and seatbelt offences at a distance of over 400 metres - intelligence led deployments and the increased reporting of bad or dangerous driving by concerned members of the public, we will together make a difference in Dorset."

He added: "The Dorset Road Safe partners will continue to make full use of the 'no excuse' team, traffic officers, safer neighbourhood teams, safety camera vans and the responsible drivers using our roads to catch those that think the law does not apply to them."

The 'no excuse' team is part of the Dorset Road Safe partnership's casualty reduction campaign.

It is made up of police officers using marked and unmarked cars and motorcycles and is supported by safety camera vans.

Brian Austin said academic studies have shown that slowed reactions caused by the distraction of using a mobile phone whilst driving were similar to those driving at the drink drive limit.

Up to a quarter of those killed on Dorset's roads in the past two years have been as a consequence of drink driving, he said.

Sally's Cook Shop

SALLY'S Cook Shop, in Barrack Street, Bridport opened its door for trading on 4th May, after several weeks of re-decoration and shop fitting. The owner Sally Farrar, has created a light and airy space within the shop front area of this lovely old listed building in Barrack Street, found next door to The Tiger Inn.

Sally has re-located to Bridport from her hometown in West Sussex last December, to be with her partner Martin, who also runs a local business in the town, Bridport Coachworks.

Sally, a self confessed foodie, has always had a love for cooking, and back in West Sussex over the years has "catered" for many events, large and small, and after moving to Dorset, has gone on to discover food heaven in a number of gorgeous cafés, restaurants, eateries and shops in the local area. When the opportunity arose recently to rent the shop premises on what was once the former site for Bridport's kitchen shop, it became clear after talking to the local community that there was a huge need in the town to open a cook shop, so Sally's Cook Shop was born!

Sally is stocking quality cookware and glassware, Dartington Crystal and Scanpan, being just a couple of high end brand names, along with the more affordable everyday kitchen essentials. The shop also has Martin Winscombe design gifts, ie Kitchen chalk boards, clocks and hanging hooks, professional artisan bread baking "starter kit" equipment, cane bannetons, lames, and baking stones. Sally is aiming to give a personal friendly shopping experience to everyone who comes through the door, and is very keen to meet all customers needs and help with requests as much as possible.

Jaxsons Deli & Gift Store

Jaxsons Deli is described by one customer as 'a hidden jewel in Bridport'

Shaz and Jackie will soon be entering their fourth year in the shop and continue to build on their strong ethos of local, West Country and UK products. This is reflected in their wonderful cheese selection, chutneys and jams, biscuits, olives, dressings, chocolates, teas and coffees.

Their café boasts a delightful menu of breakfasts using organic free range eggs and Denhay bacon, light lunches to suit every taste and of course their fantastic homemade cakes – baked every day on the premises. Their selection of drinks include roasted West Country coffee, a variety of teas (including Dorset Tea) as well as a selection of cold drinks including milkshakes made with Purbeck ice cream.

Jaxsons have again been nominated for Deli of the Year ... and you can still vote for them either 'in house' or online, until the end of May. Last year Jaxsons received a 'Highly Commended' Award – one of only 19 delis to receive this in the UK – something Shaz and Jackie are both very proud of.

If you haven't visited Jaxsons ... why not pop in for some local produce, a coffee and cake and don't forget to check out their great gifts and hampers – you will be sure to be greeted with a warm welcome and always free smiles.

Boutique café in the heart of Dorchester

THE Loft Café on Antelope Walk in Dorchester has an ethos to provide freshly made food with seasonal ingredients, and locally obtained where possible. All food is made at the café, except for the bread which is sourced from an artisan bakery, and the menu changes daily. This ensures that ingredients are always at their best and that there is minimum waste.

The Loft has a distinctly

European feel as customers can enjoy something to eat or a glass of wine at any time throughout the day. Delicious food, wine and coffee are available at all times, and the ambience is always relaxed and inviting.

Coffee lovers will be thrilled to discover that Illy coffee has been chosen specifically for its freshness and superior taste. The brand is also truly fair to its producers as they buy direct, and also boast some impressive environmental credentials.

This unique concept is the vision of owner Sally Dixon, who has live overseas and travelled extensively throughout Africa and Asia, bringing a wonderful mix of world flavours and traditional coffee shop values to Dorchester. The Loft's Supper Club begins on Tuesday 3rd April with a Nonya themed evening.

This will then run on the first Tuesday of each month.

So for a delicious slice of home-made cake and a superb cup of coffee, a light flavoursome lunch with a glass of wine, or a quiet moment with a cup of green tea, The Loft Café is the place to be.

The Jazz, Blues and Beer Festival is going to rock Lyme Regis!

THE Lyme Regis Jazz, Blues and Beer Festival looks set to rock the beautiful seaside town of Lyme Regis over the weekend of May 25th – 27th 2012.

The Festival follows hot on the heels of the successful Fossil Festival and, with great headline acts including a Louis Armstrong tribute band and the amazing King Pleasure and the Biscuit Boys, the festival promises to be bigger and better than ever before.

Tony Colston and the small group of local businessmen who stepped in at the end of last year's festival to save it from extinction, are keen to encourage even more local residents than usual to join in the fun. "We've extended the scope of the Festival this year to appeal to a wider audience," he says, "And the weekend offers lots of variety for all the family, so it would be really great to see more local people supporting the event as well as the loyal jazz followers that have been coming to Lyme year after year to hear their favourite musicians."

Organisers are promising a great line up of trad jazz musicians to please their faithful followers – many of whom have been returning to Lyme Regis every year to support the festival since its inception in 1990 – as well as a raft of more modern and bluesy vibes, delightfully washed down with a selection of mouth-watering ales from local breweries.

The weekend will also feature its traditional umbrella parade on Saturday, May 26th – accompanied by the amazing Louisiana Parade Band. "The Umbrella Parade is great fun and a real family event," Colston says, adding "It's a colourful and joyful spectacle and a great opportunity to really get into the swing of things. It would be great if we could have a record turn out to start the Festival on a real high, so please grab your brolies and come along and join us!"

Festivals like this play an important role in bolstering the town's economy and encouraging visitors to Lyme Regis. The organisers say that after a slow start, tickets are selling well and hotels and guest houses report that demand for accommodation is good over the Festival weekend. "Our aim is that everyone has a great time and goes home to tell their friends all about it so that next year the event can be bigger and better than ever. Lyme's a fantastic place and festivals like this help to keep the town vibrant and interesting for residents and visitors alike," said Colston, adding, "Of course we couldn't make the festival happen at all without the help of a really supportive group of volunteers and we are always looking for more people to help us make the weekend run as smoothly as possible. If anyone would like to help out, they should give me a call on 07818 426426, and I'd just like to take this opportunity to thank everyone in advance for all their hard work – it's really very much appreciated and fundamental to the success of the event."

Electric and Eclectic Tunes from the Breathtaking Belshazzar's Feast

START with traditional folk music, add a touch of classical and jazz, throw in a bit of pop and music hall, and top it off with lashings of wry humour – and you have a wonderfully entertaining evening with Belshazzar's Feast. They'll be playing their eclectic and eccentric mix of tunes at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, May 25th, 8pm.

Formed by Paul Hutchinson (accordion) and Paul Sartin (oboe, violin and vocals), who share a musical passion borne out of the desire to earn sufficient money to support their extravagant lifestyles.

Paul Sartin is a member of BBC Radio 2 Award-winning big band Bellowhead and of Faustus. He combines his busy performing career with teaching and outreach work, at St Edward's School in Oxford and for community organisations, most notably Live Music Now and Super-Act. He dabbles in academia, recently assisting on a number of publications of old tune manuscripts, and regularly deputises with the Choir of Winchester Cathedral, where he gets to wear a dress to work.

Paul Hutchinson is a member of the innovative and progressive folk trio, Hoover the Dog as well as Okavango - the collaboration between Hoover the Dog and Fluxus (Belgium).

Programme Manager Margie Barbour said: "Seeing Paul Sartin host the fabulous BBC 4 Christmas sessions where his voice and exuberant energy was so infectious made me determined to invite him and Paul Hutchinson to come to Bridport with their much praised double act."

Tickets are available from BAC box office priced £12/ £11 members/ £8 concessions. Call 01308 424204 for further information.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

THIS 19th Century sonnet for May is by American novelist and poet, Helen Jackson.

MAY

*O month when they who love must love and wed!
Were one to go to worlds where May is naught,
And seek to tell the memories he had brought from earth of thee, what were most fitly said?
I know not if the rosy hours shed
From apple-boughs, or if the soft green wrought
In fields, or if the robin's call be fraught
The most with thy delight. Perhaps they read
Thee best who in the ancient time did say
Thou wert the sacred month unto the old:
No blossom blooms upon thy brightest day
So subtly sweet as memories which unfold
In aged hearts which in thy sunshine lie,
To sun themselves once more before they die.*

John Kendrick Bangs (1862-1922) the New York humorist was better known as an editor, lecturer and author of supernatural fiction than he was as a poet. He was a friend of such literary giants as Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Rudyard Kipling and Mark Twain. Here are a few of his verses.

MAY IT BE MINE

*If any round about me play,
And dance and sing in glad array,*

*And laugh and cheer,
May it be mine to see and hear.*

*If any toil at noble things,
And strive the higher levellings
To reach and win.
May it be mine to join therein.*

*If any grieve or suffer pain,
And tears fall like the summer rain
From troubled skies,
May it be mine to sympathize!*

Philosophy

*If there's no Sun, I still can have the Moon;
If there's no Moon, the Stars my needs suffice;
And if these fail, I have my Evening Lamp;
Or, Lampsless, there's my trusty Tallow Dip;
And if the Dip goes out, my Couch remains,
Where I may sleep and dream there's Light again.*

LAUGHTER

*WORRY stalked along the road,
Trouble sneaking after;
Then Black Care, and Grief, and Goad Enemies to Laughter.*

*But old Laughter with a shout
Rose up and attacked 'em;
Put the sorry pack to rout,
Wallop'd 'em and whacked 'em.*

*Laughter frivols day and night;
Sometimes he's a bubble,
But he hath a deal of might
In a bout with Trouble!*

BY SPECIAL DELIVERY

*WHEN I've a quarrel in my mind
With one who's far away,
To scorching letters I'm inclined,
In which I say my say.*

*And then I take those seething screeds
So full of ink and ire,
In which I threaten awful deeds,
And mail them in the fire!*

Some of Bangs' lecturing was done in America and Europe at the time of the Great War. In 1916 he wrote accounts of some of his experiences in a book entitled "From Pillar to Post; Leaves from a Lecturer's Notebook", which some critics say is his finest work.

WESSEX FOLK FESTIVAL AMERICAN FOLK NIGHT

WESSEX Folk Festival and Stompin' Dave Allen present a concert of American Folk music on Bank Holiday Monday 4th June at Weymouth Pavilion Theatre. The show will feature Adam Hurt from North Carolina, USA, Stompin' Dave and Kate Lissauer. A feast of banjo and fiddle music. The concert which will coincide with the Diamond Jubilee celebrations is in aid of The Marine Society and also MV Freedom.

Adam Hurt has placed in or won most of the major old-time music competitions in the US including Clifftop, Mount Airy, the Galax Fiddler's Convention and won the state banjo championships of Virginia, West Virginia, and Ohio, as well as the state fiddle championships of Virginia and Maryland. Deemed a "banjo virtuoso" by the Washington Post, Adam has fused several traditional old-time idioms to create his own elegantly innovative clawhammer banjo style. Adam will be performing with two other fantastic visiting musicians from the US Stephanie Coleman on fiddle and Beth Hartness on guitar.

A man who needs no introduction to regular View From readers is Bridport's own fiddle and banjo man Stompin' Dave Allen who will be performing alongside young banjo whiz Edward Bennett. Seventeen year old Edward from Pennsylvania is the most promising young musician in the UK's old-time music scene. Ed was youth banjo champion at the prestigious Clifftop Festival, Virginia and the Morehead old-time festival in Kentucky last year. Edward also scooped third prize at the junior old-time banjo contest at the legendary Galax Fiddlers Convention.

Also appearing is the wonderful Kate Lissauer. Kate currently resident in England, is a highly regarded exponent of American old-time country music. Her musical history includes playing with one of Maryland's champion string bands, Rev. Chip and the Moonbrides, touring as a member of the legendary Steptones Appalachian cloggers, who helped to bring American step-dancing to the UK.

Kate began her career as a champion fiddler in her home state of Maryland, and is also an expert clawhammer and old-time three-finger banjo picker, a guitarist, and singer. She presently performs as a solo artist and with her band, Buffalo Gals who recently appeared on radio 4's Woman's Hour.

Advance tickets for this event which starts at 8pm are available from Weymouth Pavilion box office 01305 783225 or Dorchester TIC 01305 267992, or online via www.weymouthpavilion.com

Jazz Dunn well

BRIDPORT'S only dedicated Dinner and Music Venue, 115 Club, will once again be show casing fabulous Jazz at their up coming gig on May 24th. Julie Dunn, their premiere evening performer returns, offering contemporary and classic jazz, singing and performing classics and original pieces on keyboard whilst being accompanied by Ben Waghorn on saxophone and flute. Julie stunned the 115 Club guests on their premiere evening with classics such as the movie theme tune to Alfie, whilst incorporating tracks from her album "What's it all about". This time, and with the launch of her latest album "Out of this World" Julie is performing stunning Jazz influenced material with a contemporary twist.

Alan Pearlman, a Drama Professor & Jazz Critic from Canterbury University said "A stunning and moving musical exploration of life... Songs include great Jazz & Blues standards, plus well loved ballads – Shadow of Your Smile, Blame it on my Youth, Don't you know what Love is, All the things you are, Out of this world, But Beautiful, Not Like This, Well You Needn't... Together with a couple of self penned compositions...

"Her voice amazingly brings all these songs to vivid life and meaning, capturing the deep sadness and at the same time transcending it and turning it into an affirmation of human existence in spite of all its pain"

Pre-booking for dinner between 7.00pm and 8.00pm is essential, and guests should telephone on the day (between 2.00pm and 6.00pm) to confirm numbers in their party, at which time they will be informed of the cover charge – anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9.00pm.

SHE'S OUT OF THIS WORLD | Julie Dunn will perform songs from her new album

DRIMPTON PAYS TRIBUTE TO RED ARROW

LIKE many Dorset villages each year during the summer Drimpton stages a Fun Day, in part to help raise funds for village-based good causes. Mike Saunders, Chair of the Village Hall Committee, says: 'In 2011 the world-famous RAF Aerobatic team, the Red Arrows, played a great part in support of our fund-raising efforts to upgrade our village hall when they provided a fly past for our Fun Day. They also gave the main prize for our Grand Draw, a day for 2 people with the Red Arrows at their home base in Lincolnshire. It was an amazing gift and a great day. But, a very short time after overflying Drimpton we heard the tragic news that Red 4 piloted by Flt

Lt Jon Egging had crashed at Bournemouth. As a village community we decided to set up a memorial to our successful Fun Day and to the tragic death of Jon Egging. We are now erecting a weather vane on the roof of Drimpton Village Hall on Saturday 26th May between 10.30am and 12.20pm.'

The weather vane's story is a story in itself: 'Villagers, Bill Studley, a micro-light enthusiast, and his wife, Vanessa, played the key role in the idea and in organising the production of the weather vane. Such is the support for the Red Arrows and the esteem that they are held in the aviation world, that Bill's fellow micro-light pilot, Dave Valentine, and his team produced the weather vane, in his small factory, using stainless steel and powder coat paint free of charge. This incredible generosity will enable us to donate the £350 we raised for the weather vane to the Jon Egging Trust. The trust creates partnerships and develops opportunities for young people who are under-achieving in the formal education system. It will link them with inspirational people and environments connected to aviation.'

In this way the tragic death of Flt Lt Jon Egging will have both a visible memorial, the weather vane, and a living memorial, in the lives of young local people.

Full throttle fire and fury from Alejandro Toledo and the Magic Tombelinos

THE Magic Tombelinos, fronted by the charismatic Argentine – Alejandro Toledo, seem to have come from out of nowhere, not only storming the world music scene, but bursting its banks in the process and leaving audiences breathless, elated and shouting for more! Triumphant performances at many festivals across Europe, including raucous shows at WOMAD and Larmer Tree in the UK, and not forgetting the release of their debut album 'Full Attack, With Sudden Defenses' are amongst the year's highlights.

With members hailing from Italy, Portugal and Costa Rica (in addition to Argentina), the group have woven together a cohesive, lithe and exuberant sound, despite their varied musical backgrounds. Elements of Balkan, gypsy, jazz and flamenco music (all performed with an assured swagger), coupled with their energetic off-the-scale live shows, have invited comparisons to bands such as Gogol Bordello, Mano Negra (Manu Chao), Rodrigo y Gabriela and Fanfare Ciocaria. Another milestone year for Bradpole Social Club

TUCKED away behind Holy Trinity Church in Bradpole, a popular social club and night spot has just notched up 125 years of uninterrupted service to the community in 2011 and now, in 2012, goes on to celebrate 40 years in its "new" clubhouse, completed in 1972. Today Bradpole Social Club (BSC) still wholly owned by its members, is one of the oldest surviving clubs of its kind in England and whilst the membership is justifiably proud of this long history, neither they nor the Club live in the past.

Always run by a Committee of volunteers, BSC has survived through the Boer War, two World Wars and has seen the images of two queens and four kings hung on its walls. The Club has a bar serving refreshments and snacks, and ample space for entertainment and games, including the regular indoor sports at the club including Skittles, Table Skittles, Darts and pool. BSC also shows important sporting events on the large flat screen television, has regular live music, and a montly prize bingo. The Club also prides itself on actively supporting local charities, raising £2,252 for Clic Sargent in 2011.

New members, aged 18 and over, are always welcome.

Slimming expert wins award

HELPING people achieve their dreams, especially when it comes to losing weight, is no mean achievement. Slimming World Consultants are well known for being the most dedicated when it comes to real help and support through one of the most difficult things anyone ever has to do in their lives. So winning a special award for doing just that is pretty exceptional.

Becs King who holds groups in both Bridport and Beaminster on Wednesdays says "This job is so very special. Watching someone change from having no confidence, being embarrassed about their size and wearing shapeless clothes to someone who looks and feels great, brings its own rewards on a daily basis. But to have your work recognised in this way is, I must admit, a very proud moment for me"

In the last three months Becs has helped members lose 1305lbs adding her groups to be one of the best weight losing areas in the country. So well done to Becs and well done to the slimmers of Bridport and Beaminster Slimming World.

AT LAST.....KETTLERCISE® COMES TO WEST DORSET

AT Last, Kettlercise® is HERE. After being launched a couple of years ago as a group fitness concept, Kettlercise® has featured in a range of fitness magazines, most recently, the March/April edition of Slimming World, and the classes have gone from strength to strength around the country.

So WHAT IS KETTLERCISE® - Many people will be familiar with the kettlebell as a piece of resistance training equipment. They comprise of what looks like a steel ball with a handle and come in a range of weights from 2kg up to over 40kg. Kettlercise uses low weights due to the nature of the classes. A class consists of a basic warm-up, kettlebell specific warm-up, then 37 exercises, each of a minutes duration. The session provides a total body workout and is a great fat burning exercise, improves core stability, as well as producing great muscle tone and muscular endurance. The end of the session involves a cool down and post workout stretches.

Kettlercise instructor Steve Reed is a diploma qualified personal trainer, who, after many years in the fire service and a move to Australia in 2005, returned to the UK and chose Bridport as a great place to live with his family. A committed exercise professional, Kettlercise was a natural progression for Steve, who had used kettlebells for his own training for many years. Taking the instructors course with the UK Register Of Kettlebell Professionals was a fun and demanding course. His success has made Steve one of the only qualified and certificated Kettlercise instructors in Dorset. He is passionate about spreading Kettlercise to anyone who wants to learn this amazing training system.

Kettlercise has really hit the headlines after featuring in the health and fitness press, and class participants are seeing amazing body transformations, as well as enjoying the fun and social aspect that group training offers. To date, around 85% of attendees are female, but men are welcome and there are a range of kettlebell weights to suit all levels of fitness.

The first class will take place at BFIT community Sports Hall, Tunnel Road, Beaminster and will be on a Thursday at 6.30pm, beginning 24th May.

For more information on Kettlercise in your area or to book a space in a class, please contact Steve Reed on 07873 263 208, email kettlercise@stephenreed.co.uk, or join the Dorset Kettlercise group on Facebook. Steve's website is www.stephenreed.co.uk. To book a class at B-fit or for more information on other classes offered, please contact Richard Mooney on 07792 791 038.

BEAMINSTER - £215,000

A BEAUTIFULLY appointed apartment within Stoke Water House set amid the rolling Dorset countryside in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, yet within easy reach of the picturesque town of Beaminster (approx. 1 mile).

This immaculate and low maintenance property would make an ideal home for buyers seeking a rural retreat without being isolated.

The accommodation includes a superb hexagonal living room with beams and high ceilings giving a light and airy feel. From here, double doors open onto a large south facing private terrace, which makes a delightful place for Al Fresco dining, sunbathing or just enjoying the peace and scenery. Adjoining the living room is a well organised kitchen/breakfast room with good storage and this leads to an inner hall off which are two bedrooms and a bathroom, the master bedroom having en suite shower room and a walk-in wardrobe.

Outside, there are lovely communal grounds comprising well maintained gardens, an ornamental pond, a paddock, secluded clothes drying area, picnic area and small allotment plots.

Each apartment owns a single garage and there is ample visitor parking. The property is a first floor apartment and benefits from uPVC double glazing and gas central heating (LPG).

Stoke Water House is an interesting historic building, built in 1838 as a workhouse. Its unusual shape is reminiscent of an anchor from an aerial view point. Today, it forms a complex of 21 homes, varying in size and nestled in approx.

With an asking price of just £215,000 the property represents good value for money. Please call Gordon & Rumsby on 01460 30888 for more information or to book a viewing.

FU11 HAM for sale...

DVLA Personalised Registrations has unearthed the ideal registration for the locals to bid on during its first auction in the Capital for over a decade.

FU11 HAM, possibly the closest a motorist will get to actually having Fulham on their vehicle, is being auctioned during the Agency's special three-day event being staged at City Hall from Thursday, June 7.

While SW6 residents may well be interested in bidding, the likelihood is passionate fans of Fulham FC will compete for their perfect plate.

Two of the top three positions in the DVLA's league table of football club-related registrations are held by London clubs. WE57 HAM and AR53 NAL were auctioned in 2007 and 2004 for £57,000 and £36,000 respectively. V1 LLA holds the third spot, selling for £35,000 in November 2000.

FU11 HAM is among 1,750 registrations collated for the sale, a proportion of which have direct links to this summer's Olympic Games as DVLA Personalised Registrations has been appointed as one of the official licensees of London 2012.

With registrations like 2012 OG, GO11 DEN, WON 601D, DVLA Personalised Registrations has gone to great lengths to ensure motorists, too, can show their support of our Olympians and what will surely be the greatest sporting spectacle in the world.

Jody Davies, DVLA Personalised Registrations' Events Manager, said: "While our Olympic-themed registrations will undoubtedly steal the limelight during our auction next month, we can't forget the sale will also include a huge array of popular name-related registrations. FU11 HAM is a prime example of just that."

CHARMOUTH FC AWARDS

CHARMOUTH football club members held their annual presentation night last week.

The winners of the various awards were: Players Player of the year - Mark Franklin, Managers Player - Matt Dare, Committees Player - Josh Caldwell, Young Player - Matt Pile, Spoon Award - manager Phill Morris, Clubman - Paul Grinter.

Committee member Mike Smith was impressed by the efforts of all the winners. Of Grinter he said: "Paul is just 18 and has joined the committee and has worked his heart out for the club.

"In particular preparing the ground and changing rooms for each home match, and looking after the kit and equipment as well as playing - including of course scoring the winning goal in the final match which saw us avoid a third successive relegation.

"We are all now upbeat for next season and hope to carry on where we left off in the second-half of the season with a few new players promising to join us to strengthen the squad.

No luck for consistent Bees

FIVE players shared the five major trophies at Bridport Football Club's Annual Awards night on Saturday confirming manager Trevor Senior's view that despite finishing 14th in the Toolstation Western League Premier Division his side were consistent and with better luck might have finished much higher.

Ryan Hayter and Dan Wise shared the most coveted of them, the Player's Player which is voted for by your teammates. Hayter also picked up the Supporters Player of the Year award and the Home Player of the Year.

In the evening held at the Highlands End Holiday Park, Matt Condliffe received the Away Player of the Year title whilst sponsors Tanners Sports and Music Bar selected keeper Sam Filkins for their award. Young Player of the Year was Joe Charles.

Volunteer Roger Lewis won the Personality of the Year for his hard work, whilst groundsman Sean Coombs won the Clubman of the Year for the second successive season for his work on St Mary's Field.

In his after dinner speech Senior said he was not surprised that there were so many winners as he felt that the whole team had performed well over the season with everyone producing outstanding individual games at different times.

"I'm not surprised in the least; I know how close the voting was. We have been pretty consistent this season, and I can only think of a handful of games where we have not performed to the best of our ability, so I know it must have been a hard choice."

Chairman Adrian Scadding congratulated all three teams and their managers on a successful season; the reserves finishing seventh in the Magna Dorset Premier League, their highest finish for many seasons, and the third team just missing out on promotion by two points from Dorset League Division Two when finishing third.

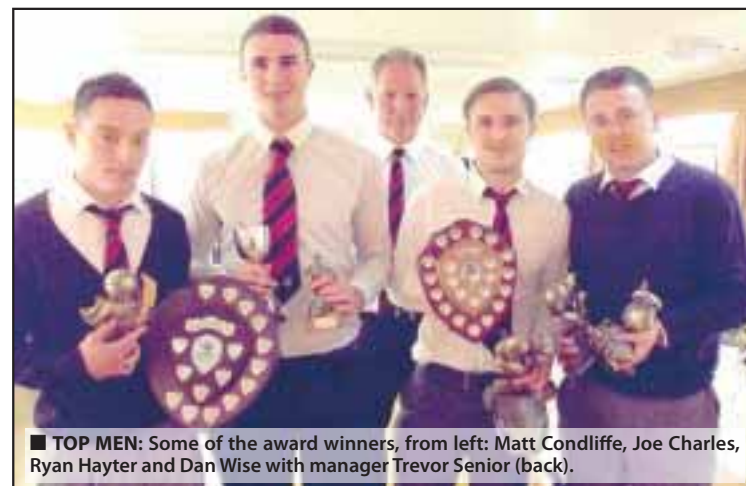

"I would like to thank everyone in the club for their hard work and dedication over the season; every club needs the support of volunteers to keep functioning, and this year all three teams have been successful.

"The main aim of the first team was to consolidate our place in the Premier League which they did, and were unlucky not to have finished higher. The reserves had their most successful season for a long time with an excellent seventh, whilst the third team so nearly won promotion.

"It was nice to see so many young, talented local players also making their mark, and it bodes well for the future of the club."

Injury double blow

However, despite finishing the season on a high note, Senior confirmed that there was also bad news for the club with both the Charles brothers Sam and Joe ruled out for large parts of next season.

"Sam has been waiting for a prognosis on a knee injury he sustained in late November, and found out last week that he will need an operation which will see him sidelined until at least Christmas."

Younger brother Joe's injury is more serious. He also sustained a knee injury in the Easter Saturday match at Sherborne that looks like it will keep him out for all next season.

Senior said: "He hasn't been able to straighten his leg since he did it, and when he saw the specialist on Wednesday unfortunately the scan showed that he has torn his anterior cruciate ligaments which will keep him out for a year.

"This is a big blow, because they have both done really well. Sam was scoring goals before his injury, and the lack of goals has been what we have missed most since, whilst Joe was in cracking form."

Goalkeeper Lee Cleal completes the bad news; another with a knee injury. Although Cleal has been able to play on despite pain, he has been unable to kick the ball cleanly.

He had an exploratory operation last week as week, and has been told that the result was inconclusive and will need a second one.

Whilst there are no new signings yet, Senior doesn't expect too many players to commit themselves at the moment, he expects some new faces at pre-season training which is expected to start on June 26th due to the early start for the Toolstation Western League on August 4th.

One is Ben Briscoe who has moved to the area recently and is currently playing cricket having played at county level for Cheshire, and Dorset Premier League with Broadstone last season.

A utility player he played five times for Northwich Victoria back in 2003/4, but hasn't played for two years following a leg injury from which he has now recovered.

Senior said: "I was introduced to him after the Street match and he said he would like to attend pre-season training."

Senior has also spoken to Portland United duo Lewis Whyton and Alex Halloran.

"Alex plays in midfield, and I was impressed with him when he played against the Reserves a couple of weeks ago, and Lewis can play up front or at the back and is very useful. If we can get those two I think it would be a big plus.

"Both have said they are keeping their options open with regards to what they are doing next year, and said they will come over pre-season and have a look."

Senior is also busy booking pre-season friendlies and was pleased to receive a call from Hillingdon Borough over the weekend who expressed an interest in visiting St Mary's Field.

The Hillmen who played their football in the Southern League in the 1960/70s finished mid-table in the Spartans South Midland League last season.

A full list of the winner's will appear next week.

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Pleasant day in the sun

BOB Buckler enjoyed a pleasant day in the sun at Newton Abbot on Monday with good performances by two of his horses.

Sulpis after some encouraging runs over hurdles, made his debut over fences in the New Alfresco Novices' Handicap Chase over 2m 5f and ran a very encouraging third behind the favourite Amuse Me, the second of AP McCoy's four timer at the Devon course.

With Nathan Sweeney deciding to switch to his first love of flat racing, the 7-year-old was ridden by Buckler's new conditional jockey Giles Hawkins who used to be at Philip Hobb's stables.

He gave him a good ride and with the horse jumping precisely apart from one small error, they took third place easily from the rest of the field.

Buckler said: "I was very pleased with him. The fences are not the smallest at Newton Abbot but he did well, and will come on for that.

"The racing papers are saying that he needs a shorter trip, but I think he needs longer. The two in front were faster than him and he will benefit from a longer race."

Mister Matt gave a very good account of himself later in the card when beaten ¾ length in the Visit Our Winning Post Restaurant Handicap Chase over 2m 110yd.

He was carrying 12lb more following his win in early April but still put in a sterling performance. Having led for most of the race he was headed as they approached the turn by the winner Dean's Grange and Tornado D'estruval.

Jumping the last he ran on again and regained second but just failed to catch the winner in an exciting finish.

"I thought it was a very impressive run considering he had gone up 12lb since his last win. He jumped very well and having looked like he was beaten, stayed on again. He will go again here next Wednesday."

The stables only disappointment was Flag Flier who choked when running well in the Corbett Farms Ltd Handicap Hurdle over 3¼ miles at Hereford last week, and had to be pulled up three from home.

"She was travelling nicely and jumping well but then suddenly choked and Andrew (Glassonbury) pulled her up. She has never shown any sign before and in fact was worked hard on the gallops this morning without any problems.

"We are not sure whether it was a one off or more lasting and will try a tongue tie next time out."

INSIDE EDGE - CRICKET ROUND-UP

WITH STUART BROOM

Runs finally flow in the sunshine

THE weather finally allowed a full programme of games for our local sides, and with it came some excellent batting performances including three centuries.

Jae Miller carried his bat with a wonderful 146 not out for Dorchester 3rd's that included an opening partnership of 201 with Sam Roles who made 72, his second half century of the season.

Hayden White who has returned to play for Weymouth this season hit an electric 122 off just 97 balls as Weymouth smashed Blandford for 305-7, whilst despite a splendid 115 from David Herbert for Bridport he couldn't prevent defeat against Portland RT.

Herbert faced the first ball and was out with the last ball of the innings as the Islanders won with just five balls to spare.

Dorset Funeral Plan League Premier League
DORCHESTER 173-4 BEAT FERNDOWN WAYFARERS 172-6 BY SIX WICKETS
DORCHESTER scored their second victory of the season with a comprehensive victory over Ferndown Wayfarers.

Having restricted their opponents to 172-6 they easily knocked off the runs with 15 overs to spare to keep them firmly in the Premier League title race led by unbeaten Wimborne & Colehill who they meet this weekend.

Dorchester won the toss opted to field, and some tight early bowling by stand-in captain Dan Belt (0-44) and James Dunham (0-16) saw Leigh Dunham (17) and Dean Elsworth (23) finding it hard initially to get them away. Finally they began to break out but first change Pete Moxom (2-22) broke the partnership by trapping Dunham leg before. He also accounted for Elsworth, but Former Dorset player Eric Linge showed his experience as he anchored the innings with an unbeaten half century.

With James Lewis (0-26), Rob Waite (1-29) and Sam Goodhew (1-23) also producing miserly performances, Wayfarers target was relatively easy. Lewis (40) and Moxom (39) gave them a good start with an opening partnership of 70 and with Belt (33) and Goodhew (23 not out) contributing well they reached their target with ease.

Captain Martyn Richards who had to watch from the sidelines but hopes to be back this weekend said: "Our only problem was we didn't bowl them out and only picked up three instead of five bowling points. On the other hand they made no real effort to accelerate and just stuck to the task against some accurate bowling."

WEYMOUTH 307-5 BEAT BLANDFORD 137 ALL OUT BY 170 RUNS
WEYMOUTH won their first game since the middle of last season with a good all round performance with bat and ball.

It was hard to tell that Hayden White has played little cricket in the last ten years as he blasted the Blandford attack all round the ground with a blistering 122 in just 97 balls.

Opening with Jim Ryall (18), the pair put on 120 for the first wicket with White hitting 16 fours and four sixes. Paul Payne (45) then helped him add 69 for the third wicket before Kieron Womble composed an excellent unbeaten 72 as he and Tom England continued the onslaught with a 94 run partnership for the fifth wicket.

Facing a daunting task, Blandford with Dave Trotter (3-27) continuing his early season form only Lewis Mutton (39) found any touch but when he went, run out by Dan Hutchens (1-30) who also bowled tidily, the visitors were in trouble at 86-5.

Cube Whyte (2-30), Matt Lawes (2-22) and Simon Browne (1-23) polished off the Blandford tail to give the Seasiders an easy victory.

Skipper Dean Janaway said: "Hayden's innings was superb and set up the first win for us, but it was a good all round team performance."

"He hasn't played for ten years but got the bug in a few 20/20 games last season and is back to his best."

"Kieron also produced a brilliant batting performance later in the innings and showed just what a good player he is going to be."

"We are still a bit rusty in the field, but that is to be expected considering we have had no pre-season training due to the weather. Dave Trotter was first class with the ball again and well backed up."

"We are obviously delighted to have got a win under our belt and kick started our season."

Division Two
WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 2ND 182 ALL OUT BEAT BEAMINSTER 133-7 BY 49 RUNS
BEAMINSTER finally got their season going after two cancellations, and although they lost, captain Will Everitt felt there were several positives to take out of the game.

"We came up against a very strong side, but we showed some promise with the ball, and will be looking to build on what was a slightly lacklustre batting performance. There is plenty to be pleased with despite the defeat."

Everitt lost the toss and Beaminster were invited to field. Apart from opener Hall (9) who was stumped by Richie Rynard off Simon Jones, the rest of the home top order scored well, but there were good spells from all the Beaminster bowlers, particularly Tom Goatly (3-32), Simon Jones (1-16) and Jack Walklet (3-42) on his debut, who took vital wickets. Mark Barber (2-32) and Ross Baker (1-42) also bagged wickets as Beaminster with excellent fielding particularly from Aaron Hull-Smith and Justin Gurd restricted Wimborne & Colehill to 182 all out.

Beaminster made a slow start to their reply due to some very tight seam bowling from Jones and Tape. First change saw Everitt (8) fall to Cornish (3-18) and when the first team opening bowler returning after injury trapped Nick David for 28, the middle order collapsed with Nye and Collinson picking up a brace apiece.

Jones who finished unbeaten on 44 not out steadied things towards the end, but the home sides tight bowling meant Beaminster fell short of their target.

WITCHAMPTON 132 ALL OUT LOST TO DORCHESTER 2ND 138-8 BY TWO WICKETS
IT took the experienced duo of Mike Peake (35 not out) and Stuart Voss (27) to steer Dorchester 2nd's to victory in a close finish.

The pair came together with the county town wobbling at 92-7 after dismissing Witchampton for 132, but they kept their heads and almost saw them home; Voss being dismissed two runs short of victory. Mike Teague and the very quick 16-year-old Crispin Brown had bowled very tightly at the head of the hosts innings, and they and captain Stuart Beasley all claimed a wicket, but it was the spin pair of Krish Subramanian with four wickets and Aaron Oliver, who bagged the other three, bowling through, who polished off Witchampton.

Lewis Chutter and Ian Legge gave Dorchester a solid start in reply but a middle order collapse left them in trouble until Peake and Voss' rescue act.

Division Three
BRIDPORT 206-5 LOST TO PORTLAND RT 210-6 BY FOUR WICKETS
Despite a superbly crafted century from Dave Herbert, Bridport went down to defeat with Portland RT winning with just five balls to spare.

Herbert who faced the first ball of the innings, was out to the last ball after cracking two sixes with his previous two shots. He and Dom Gape got them off to a great start with a first wicket stand of 93 before Gape who paced his innings well fell for 47.

Liam Toohill and Rob Condliffe both went cheaply and although Ashley Nicholls hung around for a while they found themselves 136-4. Mark Smith (22 not out) then joined Herbert and they accelerated the score, rotating the strike to add 70 for the fifth wicket before Herbert fell to the last ball.

Portland also made a good start in reply with C Leake and G Price putting on 83 for the first wicket and continued to accumulate runs against a Bridport attack that struggled with their length.

A double wicket maiden from Smith (3-26) in his fifth over suddenly made the game interesting, but Portland went into the last over tied and secured victory with the first ball.

Captain Toohill said: "It was a little disappointing as our score was definitely defendable. It might have been a different story but unfortunately we dropped Leake whilst he was in single figures and again when he was in his 70's."

"Dave Herbert was superb. He played the anchor role and built his innings slowly, before accelerating in the closing stages with Mark Smith who not only batted but also bowled well."

"We were still a bit rusty in the field giving away some cheap runs and our bowling isn't quite there yet, but our batting is improving. As Portland showed, partnerships are the key to building a solid score."

BROADSTONE 3RD 154-8 LOST TO CATTISTOCK 156-2 BY EIGHT WICKETS
Cattistock maintained their position towards the top of Division Three with a comprehensive eight wicket victory at Broadstone 3rd's.

Division Five North & West
ABBOTSBURY 70-2 BEAT CERNE VALLEY 2ND 69 ALL OUT BY EIGHT WICKETS
Abbotsbury recorded their second victory of the season with an easy eight wicket win.

DORCHESTER 3RD 283-1 BEAT BRIDPORT 177 ALL OUT BY 106 RUNS
AN incredible innings of 146 not out from vice captain Jae Miller gave Dorchester an emphatic 106 run victory.

Miller and in form Sam Roles (72) put together an impressive partnership of 201 for the first wicket before Roles was run out by Cerne Iverson.

Roles has started the season in a rich vein of form and this was his second half century in as many games; a patient and sound innings including 8 fours which included some glorious straight and cover drives.

Miller on the other hand was quite brutal, accumulating his 146 in 144 balls including 14 fours and four 6s.

Dorchester's innings continued at around six an over until the last ten where 100 runs was bludgeoned predominantly by Miller as he took full advantage of a tiring Bridport bowling attack, helped by some intelligent running between the wickets by Luke Voss.

With a massive score to chase Bridport's innings started badly when Peter Horne (1-17) struck with only his third ball, trapping Iverson leg before without scoring.

A 50 run partnership between the experienced Rod Gay (26) and a patient Lee Creedon (33) looked to get the visitors back in the game but was brought to an end with the introduction of spin; Roles (3-40) Trapping Gay leg before playing around an arm ball that went straight on with the score on 52-2, which Bridport felt was questionable.

Veteran batsman Fred Etherington (27) decided the best form of defence was attack and smashed 27 off only eleven balls before he became the second of Roles' victims, skying a catch to captain Pete Tucker, and Simon Parker followed one run later.

Voss picked up a smart catch at slip off Matt Stevens (1-26) with the score on 86-4 an early finish looked like it was on the cards but captain Toby Hall (27) and Creedon had other ideas, putting on a partnership of 47 before Roles claimed his third wicket by tempting Hall to drive upshily and was brilliantly, caught by a diving Cameran Lucas with the score on 133-5.

Callum Tucker then had Creedon stumped by Deadman before claiming a second following another superb catch by Lucas at mid wicket; this time holding the ball destined for the boundary above his head. Scot Parker (2-19) and Pete Tucker (1-8) brought the events to a close.

Dorchester skipper Pete Tucker said: "Jae and Sam batted brilliantly, both having their fair share of luck early in their innings but to put a partnership of 201 together was an incredible feat. Good bowling performances from Pete Horne, Matt Stevens and spin duo of Sam Roles and Callum Tucker ensured maximum batting points."

Hall standing in for new father Jamie Dollman said: "There were definitely a lot of positives to take from the match. We have to respect that the opening batsmen were a class above and made even our best bowlers look uncomfortable. We had a couple of chances but unfortunately they did not stick. The batting display was really positive with lots of people adding vital runs to the total."

"We knew we were up against it and a win was unlikely, but we did show good team spirit to post a decent total. I was happy with the morale of the team even after a convincing loss and hopefully we can take some momentum forwards to the next game."

DIVISION SIX NORTH & WEST
BEAMINSTER 2ND 152-6 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 2ND 151 ALL OUT BY FOUR WICKETS
BEAMINSTER won the toss and decided to bowl first and despite Ben Goldsmith's positive attitude to score quickly, some accurate bowling from Terry Field opening down the hill and Ade Phillips (1-34) from the town end pegged him down and the scoring rate to 22-1 after 10 overs.

The evergreen Field (4-35) bowled his 12 overs unchanged, removing all of the top four batsmen including Goldsmith (18) and a solid Chris Bamfield (28). Martinstown were indebted Alex Skidmore (32) and J Reynolds (26) for a 40 plus ninth wicket partnership that saw them reach 152 all out, before Dean Hyett (3-34) mopped up the tail; young David Persey (2-43) impressing with two spells up the slope.

In reply David Penman (16) and David Hall (18) got Beaminster off to a steady start, putting on 39 for the first wicket. Dan Hillier then hit a brisk 27 including a six out of the ground and skipper Hugh Rathbone with a steady 17 kept the momentum going before Hyett steered them home with a very mature knock of 43 not out.

Devon League D Division (East) 2nd XI
UPLYME & LYME REGIS 2ND XI 43 ALL OUT LOST TO EXETER II 250-6 BY 207 RUNS.
A TEN man Uplyme & Lyme Regis 2nd XI were beaten by 207 runs by a well drilled Exeter IIIs outfit (writes Paul Crompton).

Having won the toss, Uplyme skipper Brian Rattenbury chose to field. This appeared to be a good decision as Michael Holding (2-42) took the first two wickets with 32 on the board.

But Uplyme, fielding five youngsters and only four regulars, could not force a further breakthrough as Exeter put on 72 on for the third wicket before finally declaring after racking up 250 runs in 40 overs.

Despite using six bowlers only Holding and teenagers Alfie Bellworthy (2-45), whose spell was cut short when he injured his hand attempting a return catch, and Rhys Davies (1-32) shone.

In an innings which saw five Exeter players pass 30 it was A Reddick's unbeaten 68 knock which stood out.

In reply, the visitors batting line-up, decimated by first team call-ups, failed to make any starts.

Only opener Eddie Clarke (16) occupied the crease long enough to reach double figures. Uplyme's nine men were dismissed for 43 runs inside 22 overs.

The loss saw Uplyme (three points) drop to seventh in the league with a total of 29 points. Exeter IIIs (20 points) went top on 46 points.

Sunday Division Three
WINTON 2ND 204-8 BEAT SYMENE 91 ALL OUT BY 113 RUNS
POOR bowling and missed catches cost Symene any chance of victory at Winton 2nd's.

Only skipper Graham Bartlett (3-28) and Colin Willcox (0-20) managed to contain the opposition in their eight over spells. A number of half chances and a couple easier ones were put down as M Clark with 68 helped the hosts post a challenging total although Marcel Grunschloss and Ben Briscoe both took two wickets apiece for Symene.

Only Briscoe with an unbeaten 39 put up much resistance as Clark, Wynn and Feal all helped themselves to three wickets each.

DIVISION ONE
WESTLANDS 282-5 BEAT BROADWINDSOR 173 ALL OUT BY 109 RUNS

Defending champions Broadwindsor were brought down to earth with a bump after making a winning defence last week, when they were thumped by a Westlands side that had a good few Saturday first teamers in their ranks.

Batting first they racked up 282-5 off their 40 overs. Despite Joe Hawkins making a breakthrough by having their opener caught behind by Dean Hyatt with the score on 13, 1st XI captain Calum Gundry (106) and Ben Ford (127 not out) added over 200 for the second wicket as they flogged the Broadwindsor bowlers to all corners of the ground, the West Dorset side rueing dropping Ford early on in his innings.

Broadwindsor made a spirited reply with Ross Baker (65) and Hawkins (33) adding 81 for the third wicket, not far off the asking rate. However the demise of Hawkins saw wickets fall steadily with Gundry (4-23) and Ford (4-25) tormenting them again on their field.

Skipper Adie Phillips said: "There was no doubt they had a good side out and hit the ball hard , but they did have several first team players included. Dropping Ford to an easy chance early on obviously cost us."

A week earlier Broadwindsor had made a winning start having switched the game to their ground when Ilchester's was deemed unfit.

Having won the toss the visitors decided to bat on a green, damp wicket and paid the price being bowled out for 72 with Joe Hawkins (4-15) and Adie Phillips (4-20) Taking advantage of the conditions.

Broadwindsor passed the total eventually with eight wickets to spare, but took 23 overs playing cautiously on what was a very tricky wicket.

Mixed fortunes for Uplyme u13s

UPLYME & Lyme Regis U13 cricketers are through of the semi-final's of the English Cricket Board Cup (West Dorset Region).

The youngsters will entertain Cerne on Thursday evening following a 93-run victory over Martinstown last Thursday.

Batting first Uplyme piled up an imposing 128 for 2 from their allotted 20 overs.

Tyler Wellman, Wesley Holmes and Rhys Davies all retired after scoring the maximum individual score of 25.

In reply, the Martinstown wickets fell at regular intervals with only

C.Childecott (18) offering any real resistance in a total of 35 all out.

Davies and Wellman completed fine all-round performances by taking three wickets apiece and there were two for Wesley Holmes.

The team were however knocked out of the Dorset Schools cup when they were beaten by six runs by Twynham School from Christchurch.

Tyler Wellman took 3 for 17 in the Twynham total of 94.

Four players reached double figures on the Uplyme total of 88 with Rhys Davies top-scoring with 13.

US team finalised after Weymouth and Portland trials

ANNA Tunnicliffe and her Team Maclaren crew of Molly Vandemoer and Debbie Capozzi won the final place in the 2012 US Olympic Team – Sailing following a compelling four-day trial at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy last week.

Tunnicliffe battled with Sally Barkow and her Team 7 match race crew of Elizabeth Kratzig Burnham and Alana O'Reilly for the right to represent their country in the Women's match racing in a final 'first to six wins' over the course where the Olympic Games will be held.

Barkow won the first two races on the final day to reduce Tunnicliffe's lead to just a single at 4-3 but the Team Maclaren crew pulled out the stops to win their place on the team.

Portland Harbour is the ideal stage for match racing with a protected race course ideal for close called manoeuvres so intrinsic to the match racing discipline, and pending confirmation from the U.S. Olympic Committee, Tunnicliffe and her crew will be back as one of the favourites to win a medal when the games take place in late July and early August.

LYME REGIS with Paul Moffitt

A week of highs and lows best describes the efforts of the Club this week.

The lows must undoubtedly be the 10-0 whitewashing of both the 'A' & 'B' teams this week, closely followed by the 8-2 losses by the championship side and the ladies.

The league sides are going to have to find some form soon or relegation is going to be staring them all in the face.

On the plus side were two very good results in the County Cup for the men and the Top Club for the ladies.

The men, fielding two teams away, and two at home against Weymouth & Melcombe Regis, came out as 4-0 winners - a very good result considering that the Weymouth venue is very often a graveyard for our bowlers.

The ladies excelled in beating Branksome Park in 'Top Club'. Despite drawing the disciplines 2-2, superb results from the triples and fours gave them a comfortable win on shot difference, 84-54.

A depleted mens team were well beaten by Chardstock in the only friendly match this week.

Westland's show champion's style

Bridport Res 1 Westland Sports 5

WESTLAND Sports having already clinched the Dorset Premier League title celebrated at St Mary's Field on Monday with some champagne football in the first half that saw them sweep into a four-goal lead.

They were helped by a Bridport side that appeared to be awestruck by the champions who only lost twice in the league, allowing them too much space and time on the ball.

A halftime talk put that right and in the second-half the Bees gave a much better account of themselves, showing a lot more urgency and pulling a goal back.

It took Sports just three minutes to score, Steve Burton firing home from close range via a deflection after Bridport had failed to clear a corner.

Playing with confidence the visitors were slick and quick and Bridport's first half chances were few. They did create an opportunity on six minutes when Tristan Gale moved down the left and crossed low, but Jake Williams scuffed his 10-yard shot straight at keeper Ashley Knibbs.

Westland's showed how to do it almost immediately when Sam Jarman was released with a ball over the Bees defence, and he fired a left foot 18 yard shot past Jamie Fry and just inside the post before the keeper had time to move. The goal, his 31st in the league, made him the DPL's top goalscorer and winner of the Golden Boot, and it was easy to see why.

Matt Condliffe fired in a 25-yard volley in response straight at Knibbs, before Gale took advantage of a misdirected pass from Sports captain Rich Lindegaard, but his angled shot was deflected for a corner.

Westland's continued to create chances, but it was a mistake by Sam

Day that gave them their third on 21 minutes. He sliced an attempted clearance and then impeded Fry as he tried to punch clear. The ball was lobbed over the keeper and with two defenders trying desperately to hack clear, Matt Day slammed the ball home at the far post.

Whether mad at his error or not, Day was lucky not to be at least cautioned if not sent off for a petulant kick at Dean Richie that saw the striker receive four minutes of treatment, before being carried off with stud marks visible from the back of his knee down his calf.

Once again Westland's show their clinical finishing on 27 minutes when Fry failed to hold Lewis Morgan's 25-yard drive and Jarman was immediately on hand to shoot home the rebound.

The game clearly over, it settled down to a more even situation for the rest of the half, although to be fair Westland's might have added more to their score.

The Bees came out with a much more positive attitude after the break and looked to take the game to their visitors, and Darren Lock's persistence was rewarded on 58 minutes when he battled his way down the left wing and fired in an angled shot which Knibbs failed to hold allowing Gale to pick up the rebound to fire home from close range.

This galvanised the Bees, and Ben Clarke fired wide almost immediately before Lock failed to get enough power on Gale's cross.

With skipper Ash Clarke leading the way in the centre of the defence Bridport took the sting out of Sports attack, but he couldn't prevent Mike Rousell adding a fifth when he curled a superb shot in off the post.

Day did make the referee's book with a caution for a foul on Rousell from which he got up and tried another curling effort but this time Fry managed to palm the ball away to safety.
